

'GEORGE BUSH' AT THE OSBORNE HOTEL

Alfred Sant's latest blockbuster 'George Bush in Malta' is being launched on Saturday 27 April at 10.30am at the Osborne Hotel, Valletta. The general public is being invited to attend this literary activity which includes dramatised excerpts from the novel read by Anthony Ellul, Sandra Davies, Shaun Buhagiar and Anna Bassily. A discussion, chaired by Simone Cini, will follow with the participation of Francesca Mangion, Brian Buhagiar, Mark Camilleri and Charlo Pisani.

George Bush f'Malta ("George Bush in Malta") tells the story of what happened when former US President George Bush Jn. came on a private visit to Malta and was targeted for assassination by international terrorists. Suspense, rip-roaring adventure, farce and an incredibly tense climax makes the novel a sure candidate for the best seller list.

Alfred Sant will attend the book launch and sign copies of the novel which will be selling at the special price of €10. Entrance is free and a reception will follow. George Bush f'Malta is another publication by SKS.
